A group of approximately 25 people, including athletes and staff, are gathered in a large indoor sports hall. In the center, a three-tiered podium is set up. The podium levels are labeled with yellow numbers: '2' on the left, '1' in the middle, and '3' on the right. Several individuals are standing on the podium, holding awards and certificates. The athletes are wearing various colored tracksuits (blue, red, green, black, yellow). To the right of the podium, a group of four people in green shirts and black shorts are standing. The floor is made of red and grey interlocking tiles, with white chalk markings for a basketball court. The ceiling is high with exposed metal beams and large pipes. Large windows are visible in the background.
